LOCAL CONSULTANT SENTENCED TO PRISON
FOR DEFRAUDING EMPLOYER OF $341,000

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that JOHN S. ROBB, 50, Greenwood, Indiana, was sentenced to 27 months imprisonment today by U.S. District Judge Larry J. McKinney following his guilty plea to Wire Fraud. This case was the result of a investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

ROBB was employed by CapGemini, a multi-national corporation that provides consulting services on information technology to large corporations. ROBB served as the engagement director and senior manger of approximately 20 consultants on a consulting contract. Between January 1, 2001 and January 16, 2004, ROBB defrauded CapGemini of approximately $341,905 through the submission of fraudulent expense reports reflecting fictitious expenses to CapGemini. CapGemini reimbursed ROBB for the fictitious expenses through the wire transfer of funds to ROBB's personal bank account.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Joe H. Vaughn, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge McKinney also imposed 2 years supervised release following ROBB's release from imprisonment. During the period of supervised release, ROBB will be subject to the supervision of the court. ROBB was ordered to make restitution in the amount of $341,905 to CapGemini.
